About AHAD

Afrika Hayat (AHAD) is a humanitarian relief association founded in Istanbul, Türkiye in 2020 under the license number (34-263-182).

AHAD operates in the African continent, focusing on central, east, and West African countries.

Through its various activities in the health, education, water, and development sectors, AHAD seeks to change and improve the lives of the marginalized in its areas of operation.

AHAD is aware of the nature of the communities it works for and has, therefore, chosen appropriate strategies that enable it to benefit from their potential and work on developing the skills and capabilities of its people, thus maximizing their participation and influence in their lives and future, towards empowered and sustainable communities.

AHAD adopts the slogan "Because it deserves a life" which it believes in and works hard to fulfill.
